

Consumer Technology Association®

Terms & Conditions

By registering to attend the Cybersecurity Workshop (“Meeting”), you agree to accept and be bound by the following terms & conditions.

The Meeting is owned and organized by the Consumer Technology Association® (“CTA”) located at 1919 S. Eads Street, Arlington, VA 22202, USA.

1. ABOUT THE MEETING

In addition to this registration site, CTA may provide additional information via email communications regarding the Meeting which may include the description, dates, location, schedules, and other important details.

2. ELIGIBILITY TO ATTEND MEETING

Industry Affiliation – This Meeting is a trade-only event for individuals 18 years of age or older and affiliated with the consumer technology industry and not open to the general public. Friends, family and children will not be granted access to the Meeting.

Registration Data Collection and Processing – CTA is collecting this registration information for the purpose of registering individuals to attend the Meeting. CTA will process this information pursuant to legitimate interests of CTA for registering you for the Meeting. The categories of personal information that we collect for this purpose include: name, title, company, email address, and dietary restrictions. Registration information will be used to process Meeting badges, verify consumer technology industry affiliation, and send transactional emails and correspondence directly related to Meeting registration. We may share registration information with third parties that are directly related to the Meeting, subject to appropriate confidentiality and security arrangements, for purposes of event hosting and networking opportunities.

When you register for this Meeting, you acknowledge that your personal information will be processed by CTA in the United States as necessary for CTA to complete your registration for, and facilitate your participation in, the Meeting in accordance with these Terms and Conditions and the selections that you or your authorized representative make.

For further information about how we process your personal information, please see our CTA Events Privacy Policy here: <https://cta.tech/privacy-policy>

Consumer Technology Association®

Throughout the registration process you may make selections to opt in to or receive information on particular items. By selecting any of these options, you consent to information you provided during registration being shared with third parties based on your selections during the registration process.

Registering on Behalf of Someone Else - If you are registering on behalf of anyone other than yourself (“prospective attendee”), you represent that you are authorized to complete this registration, accept these Terms and Conditions on behalf of each person that you register, and that the information you provide is accurate. You agree to be solely liable for damages as a result of any information you provide, including opting-in to receiving communications at another’s email address. You agree that you have conveyed to the prospective attendee the risk of communicable disease exposure presented by attending an in-person event, as indicated earlier in this registration process, and agree that you are authorized to complete the associated release on the prospective attendee’s behalf. You agree to indemnify and hold harmless Event owners/producers, their officers, directors, employees, agents and affiliates from all liability, damages, judgments and costs (including reasonable attorneys’ fees) for any claims brought by or on behalf of any third party arising from your conduct, misconduct or negligence in completing this registration on another’s behalf. You agree to provide a copy of these Terms and Conditions to the prospective attendee and agree to be jointly accountable for any violation of these Terms and Conditions by anyone you registered.

3. IN-PERSON ATTENDANCE

Badges – Name badges must be worn at all times during the Meeting. Badges are valid for the registered individual only. Badges remain the property of CTA. We reserve the right to deny access to the Event or confiscate badges at any time.

- Identification - You will be required to show government-issued photo identification (for example, a passport, driver's license or national ID card) when signing in on-site.
- Badge Printing and Reprinting - All badge printing is done on-site at the Event. Badges are not mailed to registrants prior to the Event. All individuals must pick up their own badge at the time of arrival.

Attendance – All attendees must register for the in-person meeting and arrange for personal transportation. Registrants will receive access to a sign-up link and such link should not be shared. CTA reserves the right to deny access to the Meeting or remove a participant from a meeting at any time.

4. POLICIES DURING THE MEETING

Code of Conduct - CTA has adopted a Code of Conduct for CTA Events and by attending the Meeting, you agree to abide by the Code of Conduct.

Consumer Technology Association®

Non-Smoking Policy - CTA values participant health, safety and efficient operation of services at our events. Smoking, including the use of smokeless tobacco products, e-cigarettes, and unregulated nicotine products is strictly prohibited except in designated areas.

Weapons/Firearms - No firearms, or weapons of any kind are permitted at the Meeting.

Security Procedures – It is important for CTA to provide a safe experience for its Event attendees.

- Attendees must follow the instructions of security personnel at all times.
- In the interest of property owners’ rights, parts of the Meeting venue may be subject to video surveillance, maintained and kept by the CTA.

Distribution - The distribution of printed matter or advertising material, the affixing of stickers and posters, as well as the unauthorized use of advertising media is prohibited

Changes to Meeting - It may be necessary for reasons beyond our reasonable control (including, but not limited to, acts of God, severe weather, fire, explosion, terrorist acts or threats, any industrial action or widespread illness) to alter the advertised content, timing and/or location of the Meeting or to cancel the Meeting. We reserve the right to do this at any time and we will not be liable to you for any cost or other expenses incurred by you as a consequence (including, without limitation, registration, travel and accommodation expenses).

5. GENERAL LEGAL TERMS

Ownership - Registering for and attending the Meeting does not grant you any rights to use any of the CTA trademarks or logos. The services and associated material provided by registering and attending the Meeting, including all images, designs, photographs, writings, graphs, data, or otherwise are the property of CTA and are protected by copyright, trademark, or other proprietary rights.

Force Majeure - CTA is not liable and will not pay any compensation where the performance of our obligations is prevented or affected directly or indirectly by or as a result of a Force Majeure Event. A “Force Majeure Event” means the occurrence of an act of God, war, government intervention, authority or regulations, terrorism, disaster, fire, flood, weather elements, labor disputes, strikes, civil disorder, insurrection, communication line failures, power failures, sabotage, curtailment of transportation, national emergency, disease or medical epidemic, pandemic or outbreaks (including COVID-19), or other similar cause, circumstance or threat beyond CTA’s control making it inadvisable, commercially impracticable, illegal, or impossible to hold any part of the Event or provide the venues. If the performance by CTA of any of its obligations under the Contract is affected by a Force Majeure Event, CTA will promptly notify you of the nature and extent thereof and any alterations to your attendance based on the Force Majeure Event. There will be no further liability on the part of either party and you hereby waive any claim for property or other damages or compensation.

Consumer Technology Association®

Participation Liability - Your attendance at the Meeting is completely voluntary. As such, you agree and acknowledge that you are participating in the Meeting and associated activities on your own free will and at your own risk. You voluntarily assume any and all risks and hazards, including without limitation, personal injury, illness, or otherwise (including those in connection with COVID-19), and hereby release CTA of any liability related to your attendance at or participation in the Meeting. You assume responsibility for your own well-being.

Release and Indemnification - You, your successors and assigns release CTA, its officers, employees, agents and contractors from any and all claims you may have against CTA arising out of, or related to the Meeting, including, but not limited to: loss, theft, damage, delay or non-delivery; any injury to you, your employees, agents, representatives or guests during the Meeting; failure to hold the Meeting as scheduled; or any indirect, incidental, consequential, special or exemplary damages. You agree to indemnify and hold harmless CTA from any and all damage, loss, liability, claim or expense (including legal fees) arising out of, or in connection with: (1) the violation of any law or ordinance by you, your employees, agents, representatives, guests, or others; (2) damages to property or personal injury caused by you, your employees, agents, representatives or guests during the Meeting; and (3) your presence in and use of the Meeting premises or virtual platform.

Governing Law - These Terms and Conditions and the rights and obligations of both parties will be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia in the United States of America without giving effect to any conflicts of law rules that would cause the application of the laws of any other jurisdiction. You consent to the exclusive jurisdiction in the courts of the Commonwealth of Virginia in respect of any dispute which arises.